Overview

Consumer Specialties Insurance (CSI) was founded by the Household & Commercial Products Association (HCPA) to provide specialty chemical manufacturers and distributors with needed insurance protection at a reasonable price. Today, CSI, as a policyholder-owned insurance company, continues to serve an important need – providing a stable, reliable source of General Liability/Products Liability, Hired and Non-Owned Auto Liability, and Umbrella Liability insurance to the consumer specialty products industry.

CSI is licensed by the Vermont Department of Banking and Insurance to transact business as a risk retention group in all fifty states.

CSI is administered by Ames & Gough, a retail broker and national program manager located in McLean, VA.

Coverage That Works

CSI offers Commercial General Liability/Products Liability, Hired and Non-Owned Auto Liability, and Umbrella Liability Coverage.

Basic policy limits are $1 million per occurrence/aggregate. Umbrella/excess limits up to $5,000,000 are available on an individual basis.

The minimum standard deductible is $2,500 per claim with a $12,500 aggregate. Higher deductibles are available.

Vendors Coverage is available.

Pollution Liability resulting from a hostile fire and from the product's liability exposure is included; as is short-term pollution incident protection.

Each policy can be tailored to meet the individual needs of the policyholder.

To provide a single source of business insurance, additional coverage may be available on an individual basis through Ames & Gough, which evaluates insureds on a case-by-case basis.
